SPECIAL PLANS for NCRCO during NACo's LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

WHITE HOUSE BRIEFING: A White House Briefing by senior White House officials is on our NCRCO agenda for Monday afternoon, March 7, following NACo's general session. Reuben Barrales, Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, and Kathy Rust, executive assistant to the director, are lining up President Bush's staff members to brief us on current administration issues. They have reserved the large conference room in the Old Executive Office Building for us from 3:30-5:00 p.m.

All who plan to attend will need to provide their name, birth date, social security number, and place of birth if not a citizen. All attending must be current members of NCRCO. Reservations will be taken during the NACo Legislative Conference at Sue Ann Foster's table (where you can also purchase Republican items and pay your NCRCO dues), at the membership meeting Sunday morning, and as late as Sunday evening during the NCRCO reception.

Reuben and Kathy from the White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs both plan to attend the reception Sunday night and will accommodate us by taking with them our list of reservations for the White House Briefing so confirmations can be made the next day.

*As we savor the re-election of President George W. Bush in 2004, we must realize that Republican County Officials have an obligation to keep up the impetus that brought us to victory in the election. As NCRCO continues to grow, our participation in the election effort becomes more noticeable. Our leadership is needed. As we increase membership, we can play a greater role in the election process. Please renew your membership in NCRCO for the 2005 year. Many of your peers will be pleased to join NCRCO if the invitation is extended to them. Please copy this correspondence and enlist new members!
